THE PREMIER STYLE SHOW FOR FASHIONABLE WOMEN

..Magnificent Fall Millinery..

Rich, glowing autumn is here with its mass of Goldenrod and Oak leaves turned brown and crimson red.

This gorgeous autumnal beauty is reflected in our Millinery Exhibit, which reveals in wealth of superb colors, the wondrous handicraft of the Master Milliners of Paris, and amongst the score gathered are lovely creations from Virot, Georgette, Esther Meyer and others.

Side by side with these Foreign creations in our Millinery Salon is exhibited exclusive productions and skillful adaptations of our own workrooms.

A Superb Gathering of Fashionable Garments

Dame fashion has smiled approvingly on our collection of Gowns and Suits which our buyer bought recently in Paris and Berlin, where she had entree to the prominent creators of fashion seldom open to buyers.

These purchases of original models are the very newest ideas in Paris and Berlin and will more than repay the fashionable dressers of Richmond for time spent in viewing this exhibit.

+ SOCIETY +

MISS MARIE MILNES, who has been spending the month of August at the Yellow Sulphur Springs with her mother, and the past several weeks in Danville as the house guest of Miss Bessie Carter, has returned to her home in this city. While in Danville Miss Milnes was the guest of honor at several morning card parties and suppers at the Country Club, among them being a very attractive little dinner given by her hostess, Miss Carter. The table was decorated in lavender asters, and some of the same flowers formed a long flat oval for the center of the table. Guests present were members of the younger set in Danville. Miss Milnes was also much entertained at the Yellow Sulphur, one particularly handsome dinner being given in her honor shortly after her engagement to Herbert Whitehurst, of this city, was announced.

At the White.
Mrs. Barton Grundy, of Richmond, who is spending the month of September at the White Sulphur Springs, entertained a small company of friends at a bridge whist party on the piazza of her cottage last week. Decorations were in wall pockets of gladiolas and rustic baskets of pink roses. Attractive prizes were awarded at each table.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wortham, Jr., who are also among the Richmond contingent at the White for September, entertained at cards in the Casino with an informal supper following. The tables were arranged with yellow daisies and goldenrod.

Returned to Richmond.
Mrs. George Ben Johnston and children have returned to their home in this city after spending the summer at the Rockbridge Alum Springs and visiting friends in the Northern part of the State. They were the guests of Mrs. Dulaney in Loudoun county, and later spent several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Walton Fleming at "Gordonsville," their handsome estate in Fauquier county.

Mrs. Granville Gray Valentine and small daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Valentine's sister, Mrs. Small, at her home in York, Pa., have returned to Richmond. Mrs. Small is most pleasantly remembered here as Miss Fanny Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Eppa Hunton, Jr., and little son have opened their town house, 8 East Franklin Street, after spending the summer months in Warrenton.

Archer Hobson has returned to the city after spending several weeks with friends at Nimrod Hall, in Bath county.
